Heat up your closet this holiday season!

His and Her's Closet Cleanup

Toronto, Ontario - January 21, 2010: Want to change things up this romantic holiday? Come together as a couple and "Heat up your closet " with Wendy Woods, THE REFINERY and Ryan Short, Styletherapy for Men.

During the closet cleanup, Wendy and Ryan will teach the couple how to alter their clothes to suit them better, how to create a functional wardrobe and the essentials you need to pull everything together. They will not only save time and money this spring, but also feel confident as they turn heads together.

Knowing how to dress is one thing; knowing how to dress together to be that "it" couple is another. It's this entry into sharp, sophisticated, sexy fashion that this closet heat-up will bring this spring.

The couples' package is being offered for $300.00 this holiday seasons and includes 2 hours and a list of essential items and tips to keep that look. To order you may visit www.therefinery.ca or www.styletherapy.ca or contact Wendy or Ryan directly.
