Shop Like a Parisian in TORONTO!

TORONTO, ON, June 8, 2009 —The fashion scene in Toronto is thriving with hundreds of shops and fashion boutiques offering Paris worthy designs. When visiting it's very likely that shopping is on the list of things to do. So where do you start your shopping spree- Yorkville? The Eaton Centre? When Toronto Life names 700 boutiques as "the best" boutiques in Toronto, it's hard to know where to start. Perfect for travellers of Toronto, THE REFINERY boutique shopping tours separate the unique from the ordinary.

From Paris with Love

The boutique shopping tour concept, which originated in Paris, comes to Toronto via THE REFINERY, a Toronto based image consulting firm. The tours break away from traditional department store shopping, and are perfect for those looking to explore Toronto's fashion scene and learn about personal style along the way.

Chic City Boutiques

"It can be overwhelming for those shopping in Toronto. As an image consultant, I come across so many unique clothing and accessory boutiques every day that the average shopper doesn't even know about," explains Wendy Woods, Founder and President, THE REFINERY. "Our boutique shopping tours showcase all of the fashion and flare that Toronto has to offer!"

Style with a Smile

THE REFINERY embraces individuality and welcomes you with a warm smile - you'll feel totally at ease with these fashion know-it-all's. Each stylist offers objective advice when it comes to style, body shapes, colours and accessorizing – They're like a best friend with professional advice. Targeted to everyday women: shopaholics, new moms, entrepreneurs, 9-5'ers and retirees, the walking tours are broken out into five different themes and run weekly.

THE REFINERY tours are perfect for a “girl’s day out”, bachelorette and make a unique gift... especially for yourself! Each tour costs $95 per person and runs about four hours.
